

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

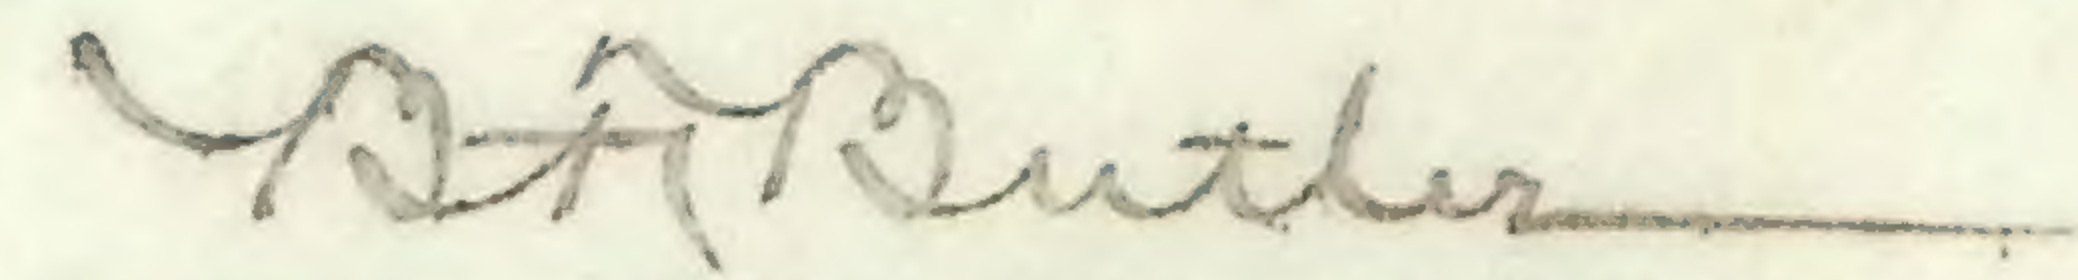

Washington, D. C., Sept. 15, 1899.

Crocker, Wheeler Mfg. Co.,
Nos. 39 & 41 Cortlandt Street,
New York, N. Y.

Gentlemen:

Referring to your letter of September 12th, to Dr. Whitehead, Assayer of the Bureau, in reference to a balance of $19. said to be due your Company, I would say that the Bureau, early in June gave a contract to Mr. Hess for supplying a starting box for the Laboratory. When it was put in place through some fault in the designing of the box, the armature of the motor was burned out and the box had to be removed. The Bureau refused to pay Mr. Hess, who is the only party we know in the transaction, and he removed the box. We do not understand that we are indebted to you.

Respectfully yours,

Acting Director of Mint.
